MESSAGE FROM THE Vice Chancellor

I feel honoured and privileged for having been given an opportunity to contribute my bit to the evolution of Doon University as an emerging centre of excellence in the field of higher education in the country. Established by the Government of Uttarakhand by an Act in 2005 and having started the academic programmes in the year 2009, it is matter of great pride for us that Doon University has been recognised under 12 (B) of UGC Act in short span of time mainly due to the dynamic leadership and total dedication of my predecessors – Prof. Girijesh Pant and Prof. Gajendra Singh. The academic year (2011-12) was quite eventful as the University initiated ambitious 5 year integrated programmes in the School of Communication and School of Social Sciences (Department of Economics) for the benefit of the secondary school pass outs in the State of Uttarakhand and the country. The University also started a doctoral programme in Environmental Science in the School of Environment and Natural Resources. Additionally, the Certificate Course in Security Management was upgraded to Post Graduate Diploma in Security Management meeting the requirement of security agencies. In addition to the three schools mentioned above, postgraduate programmes are being offered in School of Languages (Department of Spanish, Chinese and German) and School of Management. The University has taken extreme care in developing syllabi and course contents for its various programmes drawing upon the expertise and experience of eminent scholars and academicians. The University is aiming to expand the scope of the programmes currently being offered by various schools as well as to establish School of Physical Sciences, School of Biological Sciences and School of Technology with a focus on basic and applied research and teaching. In immediate future, a 5 year integrated Masters Programme is envisaged in Japanese language in School of Languages and an M.Tech. Programme in Environmental Technology in School of Environment and Natural Resources.

The University is making all efforts with the support of State Government to provide the necessary infrastructure and facilities to meet the requirement of increasing intake of students. This year we hope to complete the under construction Academic Block II and the Lecture Hall Complex. In addition, developing sports stadium is also a priority for the outdoor games for the students. The University has unique culture of providing a structured as well as informal way of continuous engagement of the students with the faculty and visiting eminent academicians and scientists.

As you go through the Annual Report (2011-12), you would notice that at present the University has an inadequate number of faculties to cater to teaching requirement in some programmes. I would try my best to ensure that the University gets the best faculty for its various programmes and the students have the benefit of world class quality education. It would be my sincere endeavour that Doon University establishes a brand name for itself in the field of higher education.

Towards this end, I urge all the esteemed members of the statutory bodies and other well wishers of the university to join me in my efforts to make it a name to reckon with in teaching and research in years ahead.

With best wishes!

2. About Doon University

The idea of Doon University draws its elements from huge deficit that the state of Uttarakhand has been experiencing in the area of excellence in higher education. The Doon University Bill, 2005 (Uttaranchal Adhinyam Sankhaya 18 of 2005) was passed by the Uttarakhand Legislative Assembly and assented to by the Governor on April 23, 2005. It was published in the Uttarakhand Gazette on April 26, 2005. On 9th May 2009 its Statutes were approved and the University started its first academic session on 6th August 2009. The spirit of the Act is to create an autonomous and accountable institution of higher learning. Accordingly, the University intends to impart socially and economically relevant education. It also aims to provide lead in frontier areas of research and methods of pedagogy. Indeed the mandate is huge and challenging.

2.1. Vision and Mission of Doon University

In accordance with the provision in Section 5(1) of the Act, Doon University shall become a Centre of Excellence in the chosen areas of studies, and shall carry out research for the advancement and dissemination of knowledge. Such an effort shall be benchmarked with the best in the country and globally. The Doon University will be known for:

- Student and learning-to-learn centered pedagogy supported by a community of eminent research scholars.
- Leadership through collaborative educational ventures &
- Value-based learning

2.2 University Mission:

The University shall work to achieve the following

- State-of-the-art educational programmes in cutting-edge disciplines of regional, national and international relevance
- Conduct high quality and multi-disciplinary research to expand the boundaries of the knowledge in the chosen areas and
- Provide a challenging and conducive environment for scholars-researchers to engage in pursuit of excellence

2.3 Character of the University

In consonance with the spirit of Doon University Act, the character of the University can be as summarized below:

- Centre of excellence in higher studies, sensitive to the requirements of society and having twinning arrangements with leading universities/institutions to offer joint programmes in teaching and research.
- Students to be drawn from across the country and abroad, especially from the developing countries besides from Uttarakhand.
- Selection of the students to various academic programmes to be made strictly on the basis of merit and aptitude.
- Requirement of high quality faculty from across the country.

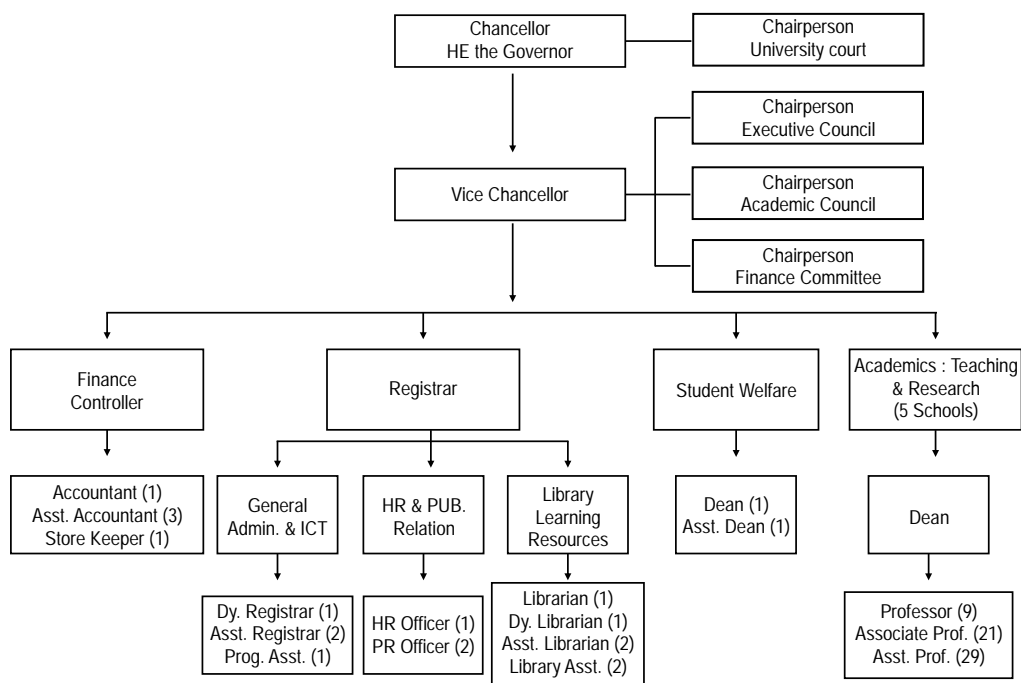

2.4. Pedagogy

At Doon University, the pedagogical approach is premised on basic recognition that pedagogical choice for the twenty-first century must reflect the changing educational, technological, professional, societal needs and aspirations. This recognition and its acceptance in turn requires/demands a shift from traditional forms of only classroom-based and teacher-centered instructions to more holistic approach to acquiring knowledge and skills appropriate for the times which is achieved through four key elements of the pedagogical orientation namely: Active learning, Learning beyond the classroom, Education for profession and Career skills. This has been achieved through the following:

- Advisor for each student for close student-teacher interaction
- Tutorials-learning beyond classrooms
- Continuous evaluation through sesonal-seminars, projects, assignments, tests/quizzes
- Field Study/Summer Internship for third Semester students for first hand professional experience and hands-on-training.
- Dissertation in fourth Semester for enhancing analytical capacity and research aptitude in students.

3. Governance Structure of the University

3.1. University Court

The Court is the supreme authority of the University and has the power to review the acts of the Executive Council and the Academic Council. The composition of the University court is given in Annexure I.

The first meeting of the University court was held on 12th November, 2011. Addressing the first court meeting of the University at the university campus, the governor emphasized on the Skill creation as the first priority. The sphere of knowledge in the hill state must move around employability of our younger generation. This will lead us to innovative processes making the state a leader of the knowledge society,” said the Governor while addressing the Vice Chancellor and other members of the University's Court. The governor also stressed the need for having a state advisory council for higher education and technical education in place in the state. Members expressed their views on various issues including the need to introduce Indian languages in School of languages of the University, starting a school of tourism, having a school of performing arts and collaborating with other universities in India and abroad. There was also a request that medical facilities and a doctor on campus be made available at the university. The governor stressed the need to do this on an urgent basis. Renowned academician, Prof Pushpesh Pant made the suggestion that the university could start a virtual museum of the folk arts and cultural documents of the state and make it available to people on the web, which can be further developed as a museum of the state

The amount of Scholarship has been fixed at Rs. 5,000/per month. Currently six fellowships are being offered to the University students.

6. Academic Schools

6.1 School of Environment & Natural Resources (SENR)

Vision: The School of Environment and Natural Resources aims at meeting the needs of the society by providing advance training to students in environment and natural resources management through a structured curriculum with integrated multidisciplinary approach involving latest advances in the fields of physical, chemical and biological components of the environment. Wherever needed emphasis will be given to geomorphological attributes, and socio-ecological and socio-cultural aspects of mountain ecosystem highlighting issues and problems illustrated with Case Studies.

Mission: The School of Environment & Natural Resources endeavours to study the problem of environment in an integrated manner with a multi-disciplinary approach. For conducting research in Geology, Glaciology and Renewable and Non-renewable Energy Resources, the University has entered into an MOU with Wadia Institute of Himalayan Geology and Indian Institute of Petroleum, Dehradun. MOU with other organization of repute such as Central Soil and Water Conservation Research Institute, Indian Institute of Remote Sensing and Central Building Research Institute are also in pipeline.

Broad Areas of Research

Bio-resources including biodiversity; Forestry; Renewable and Non-renewable Energy Resources; Ecology & Ecorestoration; Environmental Pollution; Waste Management; Bioremediation, Geomatics, Geology and Glaciology, Disaster Management, Climate Change, Mountain Ecology, Aquatic Biology.

Ph.D. Programme

SENR has taken major initiative by offering Ph.D. programme in Environmental Science from 2011. Currently the main thrust area of research are Environmental microbiology, Microbial Ecology, Eco-restoration, Environmental Pollution, Bio-resources including Biodiversity, Aquatic Biology, Waste Management, EIA, Climate Change, Geomatics and Atmospheric Sciences. For conducting research in Geology, Glaciology, Renewable and non-renewable Energy Resources, the University has entered into an MOU with Wadia Institute of Himalayan Geology and Indian Institute of Petroleum, Dehradun. For further strengthening research collaboration in various fields of Environment and Natural Resource Management, more academic linkages are being worked out with Central Soil and Water Conservation Research and Training Institute, Indian Institute of Remote Sensing, Dehradun, Centralk Building Research Institute, Roorkee and Jawaharlal Nehru University New Delhi. The innovative and interdisciplinary doctoral programme with mandatory course work of two semester comprising of research methodology , analytical techniques, environmental modelling will train a new generation of professionals who will integrate natural and social sciences concepts and approaches to resolve natural resource crisis and emerging environmental problems. At present five students have been admitted in Ph.D. programme out of which one student is registered jointly with Wadia Institute of Himalayan Geology.

Laboratory Facility

The laboratories of the school are well equipped to undertake research in various disciplines of Environmental Science. The school was supported by UGC with a grant of Rs 2 crore for strengthening its laboratory facility. At present sophisticated instruments such as Atomic Absorption Spectrophotometer, PCR with Gel documentation system, HPLC, GC-MS, Fibre Analyser, Kjeldahl Nitrogen Analyser, UV-visible spectrophotometer, Microwave digester, Anderson Cascade Impactor, Flame photometer along with some minor instruments such as BOD incubators, Hot air ovens, Autoclave, Laminar air flow, Micro balances, Electrophoresis unit, Distillation units are available in the SENR laboratories. Some more instruments such as CHNS analyzer, ICP, Ion Chromatograph, Infrared Gas analyser, Air Quality Monitoring System are under process for procurement.

A GIS and Remote Sensing Laboratory with 20 Computers, four work Stations and Plotter and Scanner has been established in the school for enhancing the capacity of the students to undertake dissertation and research in the Environment and Natural Resource Management. Ten license of Erdas Imagine and five license of Arc-Info has been procured by the school for the GIS and RS laboratory.

Vision: The communication and media sector has grown several folds and is projected to continue growing in the coming decades. On the one hand, the industry has witnessed a virtual explosion in the process of creation and consumption of information and communication output and, on the other, an upsurge in the demand for intellectual and professional skills to face the challenges and the opportunities brought about by the transformative forces of communication revolution. The School of Communication at Doon University is a response to these challenges by providing a flexible academic programme to study the emerging disciplines and train students for the many exciting professional careers emerging with the convergence of technologies and communication processes.

Mission: The School of Communication will strive to produce responsible and socially accountable communication practitioners who possess both theoretical and practical knowledge relevant to the field of Media and Communication so as to serve the society at all levels.

The School offers academic programmes in media and communication which includes:-Journalism, Social and Development Communication, Advertising, Public Relations, Photography, Radio Television, Films, Animation, Graphic design, Multi-media, Media management and research. The programme curriculum is wide ranging and interdisciplinary and carefully balances theoretical and practical information. The curriculum familiarizes students with concepts both in theory and practice, introduce them to various streams of communication discipline, provide hands-on experience on all relevant skill areas and allow students to specialize in an area for entry-level jobs in communication and media sector. As part of its professional emphasis, the programme provides an opportunity to students to gain practical work experience through its internship placements in relevant organization, interact with leading professionals of the media and communication sector and assist students in finding suitable placements and self-employment opportunities.

6.6 Security Management

Post Graduate Diploma in Security Management

About the Programme

The increasing demand for professionals in the field of security has opened new opportunity of employment. However, there are no institutions to educate and impart skills to meet the managerial needs of the security sector. Recognizing the huge gap in the field, Doon University is offering One year (2 Semester) self financed Post Graduate Diploma in Security Management. The Course is designed to train prospective managers in Security, counter terrorism, fire prevention, fire fighting and safety. To manage resource better, the students are educated in personal and material management using modern technology. They are also given training in event management, crisis and disaster management. The training is systematic, progressive, through lectures, discussions, practice both by day and night.

The faculty includes senior officers of the armed forces and experts in respective fields.

The second PG Diploma Course commenced on 06 August 2011. Based on our experience of the last three courses the syllabi was updated and approved by the Academic Council. It was felt practical training needed more emphasis.

12 students are attending the present Course. Having realized the benefits of staying within the campus five students decided to stay in the hostel. They make full use of the Library, Computer laboratory and the clean open atmosphere of the University. Interaction with other students has a positive effect.

For the present course the audit of Safety and Security was conducted at the Doon University itself, commencing with an interaction with the Registrar.

For training in First Aid the students were taken to the Section Hospital at Clement Town. The exposure to a Hotel and a motor workshop was arranged nearby. The students visited Maharishi Indresh Hospital and the Industrial area in Patel Nagar Dehradun. Security of a residential colony was taught at Defence Colony Dehradun.

For exposure to a chemical unit they visited an industrial complex at Sela Qui. On the 3rd Dec they witnessed a rehearsal of the passing out parade at the Indian Military Academy.

The visit to the Eco Bn TA was most useful. To give them some practical exposure to Tree Plantation the 127 Ecological Battalion TA organized a very useful visit for the students. It is recommended students attending the Course in Environment, also visit the Ecological Battalion TA for practical training.

Shri Prem Bhalla, an eminent citizen of Dehradun, spoke on the cultural heritage of India and its importance today. He exhorted the students to be good responsible citizens, and develop both Character and Leadership qualities to serve their organizations better.

University has a 60 twin room suit located inside the University Campus for the Adjunct faculty, Visiting faculty and any other guest visiting Doon University. The faculty lodge also has a Modern Cafeteria/Mess serving hygienic and healthy food to faculty, students and guests. An international guest house with all modern amenities will soon start functioning in the University campus.

8.11 Post Office

Space for the post office has also been provided in the University campus to facilitate students, faculty and staff members.

9. Co-Curricular Activities

9.1 Cultural Activities

Human beings have intense desires to express themselves and full fill their higher needs. The Cultural club of Doon University looks after fulfilling the creativity of the students. The Cultural club looks after the cultural programmes organised during the National functions like Republic Day, Independence Day and Gandhi Jayanti. This year also many cultural programmes were organised on the eve of all the national functions. Besides, students also participated in North Zone cultural Festival organised at Lovely Professional University during 23-26th November, 2011. The trip was coordinated by Dr. Sunnet Naithani, Assistant Professor, School of Environment and Natural Resources and Mr. Nitin Kumar, Assistant Professor, School of Communication.

The cultural nights were also organised in both boys and girls hostels in which students participated in many completions such as Rangoli making, solo dance, singing, painting etc. Cultural club also organised Dandiya night during Navratri in which students and faculty participated with lots of enthusiasm.

SPIC MACAY (Society for promotion of Indisan Classical Music and Culture amongst Youth) has been active at Doon University and recital and performance by eminent personalities are organised regularly.

9.2 National Service Scheme

National Service Scheme has been initiated by MHRD long back in order to sensitize and involve the students in social service. Students have energy and commitment which needs to be channelized in right direction. The NSS wing takes part in various environmental social and cultural activities. NSS organised blood donation camp in association with IMA, Dehradun . Similarly a Green drive was also organised by NSS to sensitize the students about the Environment protection. Around five hundred saplings of trees were planted in and around the Doon University campus.

9.3 Zero Tolerance to Ragging

Doon University has a zero tolerance policy for ragging. With a view to prohibit and prevent the menace of ragging and make Doon University a ragging free Campus, the University strictly adheres to the Anti Ragging Guidelines of the UGC. University has constituted an Anti Ragging Committee and Anti Ragging Squad as per the Supreme Court of India Guidelines. Permanent boards displaying the name and mobile numbers of Anti-ragging Committee are displayed at important locations in the University campus. The Students were oriented towards the anti ragging measures by The Committee Chairperson during the Orientation week and hand outs relating to anti ragging were also distributed to them.

9.4 Redressal of Gender Issues

The Committee for Redressal of Gender Issues was constituted by Doon University on the Supreme Court guidelines of Vishaka vs. State of Rajasthan case in 1997. Honbl'e Supreme Court has laid down the guidelines for the prevention and deterrence of sexual harassment at workplace. Following the recommendations of Supreme court, the Committee for redressal of Gender Issues was constituted by Doon University in 2010 to implement these guidelines.

Permanent boards displaying the name and mobile numbers of the committee members have been displayed in both boys and girls hostels and other important locations such as administrative block, Lecture theatre complex, Library etc. The handouts were distributed to all the students both seniors and fresher to spread the awareness about gender sensitivity. The Chairperson, Gender Sensitization Committee delivered a talk on gender sensitivity during the orientation week. Two invited talk on gender related issues were delivered by Smt. Sushila Balooni, Chairperson, Uttarakhand Women Commission and Smt. Asha Dhyani, Member Secretary Uttarakhand Women Commission

9.5 Green Campus

Taking the cognizance of growing environmental degradation and impact of Climate change Doon University is fully committed towards the cause of environmental protection. The University has taken number of initiatives for making Doon University environment sensitive and friendly. Some of the Initiatives taken include.

- Installation of Solar heating systems in Faculty Home, Faculty Lodge and both the Boys and Girls Hostels,
- Installation of about eighty solar street lights in the University Campus,
- Construction of a Composting Unit for the management of biodegradable waste generated from University Campus.
- Water Harvesting Structures in all the Buildings
- Recycling of waste water through Sewage Treatment Plant.
